Dana, acting quartermaster with Joshua Richardson.	Tollage. Contractor engages that commanding officer of Fort Preble and his subordinate officers, as well as all officers of the army who may visit that post on duty, shall pass over "Portland Bridge," toll free, for the term of one year from date—in consideration of forty dollars, to be paid by the Quartermaster.
35	Boston, 25th November.	Capt. H. Whiting, assistant quartermaster with Israel Munson.	Rent. Modification of former agreement, numbered 8 on this statement, so as to relinquish second story of Store No. 4, Rowe's Wharf, Boston—and to retain only first and second stories of No. 3; for these the annual rent is to be two hundred dollars—with the mutual understanding that they may be relinquished by Quartermaster, or re-occupied by Contractor, on giving three months notice.
36	Philadelphia, 15th December.	Major Wm. Linnard, quartermaster with Messrs. Price and Morgan.	Transportation. Contractors engage to furnish full and convenient accommodation on board brig Feliciano, for one commissioned officer, Lieut. P. M. Butler, in the cabin, and in the steerage, or hold, for forty or fifty non-commissioned officers and privates, &c. of the United States' army under his command, with their baggage, provisions, &c., and to transport them from Fort Mifflin to Pensacola—to furnish a sufficiency of good wholesome water, and grant the detachment free use of the vessel's camboose for cooking. Quartermaster to provide provisions and wood, and to pay for each of said detachment actually taking passage, twelve dollars, on the production of the commanding officer's certificate of the faithful performance of the contract.
37	New York, 20th December.	Captain George Rander, assistant quartermaster with Messrs. De Foret and Son.	Transportation. Contractors engage to furnish transportation in the ship Pacific, for a detachment of United States' troops, not exceeding ninety officers, non-commissioned officers, privates, &c. with their arms, provisions, &c. from New York to Philadelphia—they will put a sufficient platform—officers to be accommodated with cabin; to put on board at the rate of fifty gallons good sweet water, per man, for the detachment, in tight casks—to furnish an additional sufficient camboose; with other minor stipulations. Also, that she shall take the detachment on board at Bedlow's island on Thursday succeeding date. Quartermaster engages to pay in New York, for the whole service, twelve hundred dollars, on certificate of commanding officer setting forth the complete fulfilment of contract; to furnish the provisions and fuel—to be at cost of putting up the births, which revert to the United States, if taken within 48 hours after her arrival at place of destination—to pay demurrage of fifty dollars per diem, if delay be caused by the public service—to pay twelve dollars for every person added to the detachment over the number stated, in which case vessel may delay till Saturday, 27th December.
